

If You Want Fire

Terri Clark

I got this dream I've been dreamin'
The perfect picture of love
Sparks and fireworks flyin'
Almost too hot to touch
And everything I wanted and then some
Suddenly walked in the room
I said, "I needed different"
But maybe I spoke to soon
It's every kinda crazy I could ever imagine
A battle ragin' between my head and my heart
But if you gotta have it all, that madness and passion
Then you'll learn, ooh, you'll learn
If you want fire, it better be worth the burn
We're either laughin' or cryin'
Flyin' high or runnin' away
But in between the thunder and lightnin'
There's always another day, another day
It's every kinda crazy I could ever imagine
A battle ragin' between my head and my heart
But if you gotta have it all, that madness and passion
Then you'll learn, ooh, you'll learn
If you want fire
Sometimes it feels all or nothin'
Sometimes it's nothin' at all
But in between those moments
It's magic that softens the fall
It's every kinda crazy I could ever imagine
A battle ragin' between my head and my heart
But if you gotta have it all, that madness and passion
Then you'll learn, ooh, you'll learn
If you want fire, it better be worth the burn
If you want fire, it better be worth the burn

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>