

I Can't Wait to Waste a Little Time

Sammy Kershaw

Twenty minutes till paradise
A mile high in the big blue sky
Man I can't wait to waste a little time
Touch down, take it nice and slow
Dig my toes into Mexico
Man I can't wait to waste a little time
A sexy sun tanned senorita,
Shakes some salt on my margarita
Whispers something I don't understand, but I just smile and say is muy bien
Tiki bar is five o'clock fiesta
Sunset calls for a short siesta
Then it's dancing to the steel drum through the night
And I can't wait to waste a little time
Solo
Seven days under a straw sombrero
Living just like I'm a millionaire
Oh Caribbean calling out to me
Let my sails out, catch an Island breeze
Feels so good going a little loco
Loving life in a postcard photo
Laying low and riding the high tide
Yeah I can't wait to waste
Just can't wait to waste
No I can't wait to waste a little time
Twenty minutes till my shift is through Napping on the job, I got work to do
No I can't wait to waste a little time
