I Miss You

Arthur Walwin

You settled the score by settling down with someone else now.
And now the cold Southern air gets harder to breathe in when you're not around.But does he do the things I did?
Does he say the things I said?
Would he ever understand our love?
What was it like to give up on everything you ever dreamed of?
Can you live with these regrets my dear?I miss you, I miss you, I miss you so bad.
I miss you, I miss you, I miss you so bad.
And I know that it's late but I'm feeling so sad.
I miss you, I miss you, I miss you so bad.Theres a hole in my heart and it's the size of the door you used when you walked out.
And the seasons have changed, and it's changing the way I sleep.
But I'm still dreaming of you now.Does he feel the things I've felt?
Does he hold you like I held you?
Do you always fall asleep in his arms?
Playing games under the sheets, or was that just for you & me?
Honestly if you've moved on, then why're you listening to me now?I miss you, I miss you, I miss you so bad.
I miss you, I miss you, I miss you so bad.
And maybe I'm just bored, or maybe I've gone mad.
I miss you, I miss you, I miss you so bad.I know I took you for granted and made the wrong choices.
I'd do anything just to take it all back.
'Cause I'll always want you and I'll always need you.
And I'm so lost without you now.I miss you, I miss you, I miss you so bad.
I miss you, I miss you, I miss you so bad.
And it hurts just to think that you're with someone else now.
I miss you, I miss you, I miss you so bad.I miss you girl, I miss you so bad.
I miss you girl, I miss you so bad.
I miss you girl, I miss you so bad.
I miss you, I miss you so bad.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/