

Let The Bells Keep Ringing

Paul Anka & Don Costa and His Orchestra

Well, there once was a boy from the town of Napoli
Who sang a song so very soft and tenderly
He met a little girl with a flower in her hair
So he sang a song and now they're such a happy pair
Oh, let the bells keep ringing, let 'em ring out with joy
Let 'em send, send their love, yes, to every girl and boy
Oh, let the bells keep ringing, let 'em ring out with joy
Let 'em send, send out their happy love
(Happy love)

Well, this boy and girl took a walk one day
Down to the sands near a moonlit bay
They talked and they talked till there was love light in their eyes
Then they kissed until the morning sun did rise
Oh, let the bells keep ringing, let 'em ring out with joy
Let 'em send their love, yes, to every girl and boy
Oh, let those bells keep ringing, let 'em ring out with joy
Let 'em, let 'em ring out with happy love
(Happy love)

Well, I've just told you, yes, the story of my life
And that little girl, oh yes, she is my loving wife
And our little house where we now stay
Sits in the middle of our little moonlit bay
Oh, let the bells keep ringing, let 'em ring out with joy
Let 'em send their love, yes, to every girl and boy
Oh, let the bells keep ringing, let 'em ring out with joy
Let 'em, let 'em ring out with happy love
(Hap-hap-hap-happy love)
(Hap-hap-hap-happy love)
One more
(Hap-hap-hap-happy love)
