

The Gravediggerâ€™s Song

Mark Lanegan Band

With piranha teeth
I been dreaming of you
And the taste of your love so sweet
Honest its trueThrough my heart flows sleep
And the dark heavy rain
Where the gravediggers song is sung
Youve been torturing meTout est noir, mon amour
Tout est blanc
Je taime, mon amour
Comme jaime la nuitLove, is the medicine good?
Is the crow flying eight miles high?
Over wire and woodShovel down six feet
With a head heavy pain
The magnolia blooms so sweet
And it fades just the sameTo the stars my love
To the sea
To the wheels my love
Till they roll all over meOh love, i been thinking of you
With razor white teeth so sharp
Honest its trueIn my blood flows sleep
And the dark heavy rain
The magnolia blooms so sweet
Only torturing meTo the stars my love
To the sea
To the wheels my love
Till they roll all over me
