

Midoca - Tell Me Your Lies (Feat. Dark W

Midoca

You say you want to be my baby
I wasn't born yesterday
You bat your lashes just like you practiced You deliver the lines just like an actress Pull the rope and it unfolds

ahh, tell me your lies
ahh, tell me your lies
I hate the way you feel, love the way you touch Guess that's something
I think I like the fiction better than the real shit
Better than nothing

I know, I know it's never been perfect here
But that's alright, to be crystal clear That's what I like
You think you're playing me, a running game
Baby, we do the same thing
We could talk about the future now
The color of the paint on our dream house
The names of kids we'll never have I see you looking for a way out

ahh, tell me your lies
ahh, tell me your lies ahh (tell me your lies), tell me your lies
ahh, tell me your lies
Tell me your lies
Tell me your lies
