The Lobby

Jane Siberry

So I go down to the lobby
And everybody stares
They say take off that foolish hat
What man? I saySo I go down to the lobby
And everybody stares
They say take off that foolish hat
Put down that chairSo I go down to the lobby
And everyone's still there
And they say the snow is getting deeper
Don't go out there
You can't leave him like that
Go back upstairsSo I run down the fire-escape
I leap into the air
And I say, I thought I'd like to fly
I needed airSo I run down the main street
I knock some people down
And they say, I know their lips are moving
I hear no sound
Five geese flew down beside me
I ran along
I don't know what you're saying
I'm not unfairSo I go down to the lobby
And everyone's still there
And they say take off that foolish hat
Put down that chair
And they say this is your darkest hour
This is my finest moment
You can't leave him like that
He'll be okaySo I go down to the lobby
I know it
I know it
