

Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow

Black Label Society

Something's always going on
Whatever's right is always wrong
 But I don't mind
I don't mindThe clouds are here, sun has come
 So confused, so numb
 But I don't mind
I don't mindBurnt and faded out
 Faded out, faded out
 Burnt and faded out
Faded out, faded outTake all I can in stride
 No you ain't the only one in this life
 Now I don't mind
I don't mindOnce you find yourself over here
 Next you find yourself over there
 But I don't mind
I don't mindBurnt and faded out
 Faded out, faded out
 Burnt and faded out
Faded out, faded outAin't no, ain't no yesterdays
 Forget tomorrow, forget it all
 We've got today
 Oh there ain't no yesterdays
 Forget tomorrow, forget it all
 We've got today
