Wild One

Martha Reeves And The Vandellas

I'd like to ask you from the start, if you could pull me out of the dark
Or if our love could fall apart like cookies crumble
See, I'm a demon on the loose, I'm like an engine with no caboose
And I need somebody who can really handle me
Yeah, baby, I'm a wild one
Don't let me run, don't let me get away
Yeah, baby, I'm a wild, wild one, yeah, baby, I'm a wild one
Don't let me run, don't let me get away
Yeah, baby, I'm a wild one
I just wanna let you know, girl, I'm attracted to your physical
But, I got this lazy eye that likes to wander, oh
You see, I'm tired of being alone, so if you throw this dog a bone
Baby, you and I can make our house a home, yeah
Yeah, baby, I'm a wild one
Don't let me run, don't let me get away
Yeah, baby, I'm a wild, wild one
Yeah, baby, I'm a wild one, don't let me run, don't let me get away
Yeah, baby, I'm a wild one
Oh, you could be the one who saves me
Or try to be the one who tames me
Girl, you are the one who's changing my way of life
I'm tired of painting the town with ladies
Or living the life so hazy, I'm tired of all my lies
I think I want some real love but, girl, you gotta realize
Yeah that, baby, I'm a wild one
Don't let me run, don't let me get away
Yeah, baby I'm a wild, wild one, yeah, baby I'm a wild one
Don't let me run, don't let me get away
Yeah, baby I'm a, wild, one
Oh baby, I'm a wild one, I'm a wild one
Don't let me get away
Yeah, baby, I'm a wild, wild wild one
I'm wild, don't let me run, let me get away
Yeah baby, I'm a wild, wild one, oh wild wild one

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/