Sweet Little Mystery

Wet Wet Wet

My love has taken a tumble
Oh, but I'm still standing
You're such a natural, sing
That's what you areI wouldn't steer you wrong
I wouldn't steer you wrongIt's just that sweet little mystery
That makes me try, try, try, try
It's just that sweet little mystery
That makes me try, try, try, tryDidn't I come to give you a sense of wonder
Didn't I come to lift the higher decision
Didn't I come to give you a sense of wonder
To your lifeI wouldn't steer you wrong
I wouldn't steer you wrongIt's just that sweet little mystery
That makes me try, try, try, try
It's just that sweet little mystery
That makes me try, try, try, try, tryOh, just think of the magic, ooh
Don't think it is tragic, no, no
Just think of the magicMy love has taken a tumble
My love has taken a tumble
My love has taken a tumble
But I'm still standingSweet little mystery
That makes me try, try, try, try
It's just that sweet little mystery
That makes me try, try, try, trySweet little mystery
That makes me try
It's just that sweet little mystery
That makes me try, try, try, tryIt's just that sweet little mystery
That makes me try, try, try, try
It makes me try
Sweet little mystery
That makes me try, try, try, try, tryMakes me try
Makes me try
Makes me try
Makes me try
Makes me try
That makes me tryTry
Try
Try
