Balance

Funkadelic

Balance is my thing, the sun don't
Snow, wind and rain most times
Balance is my thing, the sun don't
Snow, wind and rain most timesMother I can see it, I can hear it
But I don't know where it's coming from
Mother are you sure
This is the time in which we belongHey, mother don't be angry, don't be jealous
And don't forget who is to blame
Mother it was you, it was not me who Created this conflicting brain, oh, woahBalance is my thing, the sun don't Snow, wind and rain most timesHey, mother I can feel it, I can taste it
I can smell what it's all about
Hey, mother I know it's in me, all about me
But my instinct won't let it outHey, mother sometimes I'm up, sometimes I'm high
Sometimes I am really down
Hey, mother what's in your plans, what's in your game
What secrets can be foundBalance is my thing, the sun don't
Snow, wind and rain most times
Hey mother what do you mean, "Don't take it personal"
[Unverified]Hey, mother am I to sit here when my brother is down
Yes, mother I can see it, I can hear it
But I don't know where it's coming from
Hey mother are you sure this is the time where we belongBalance is my thing, the sun don't Balance is my thing, the sun don't
Balance is my thing, the sun don't
