

Psalm 73 - My God's Enough

BarlowGirl

I've had enough of living life for only me
And reaching just for the things that keep destroying me
So sick of envying the lives of so many I see
Somehow believing that they have what I need
My God's enough for me
This world has nothing I need
In this whole life I've seen
My God's enough, enough for me
I can't explain why I suffer though I live for You
Those who deny You, oh, they have it better than I do
Cover my eyes now so that my heart can finally see
That in the end only You mean anything
My God's enough for me
This world has nothing I need
In this whole life I've seen
My God's enough, enough for me
Who I have in Heaven but you
Nothing I desire but You
My heart may fail but not You
You are mine forever
Who I have in Heaven but you
Nothing I desire but You
My heart may fail but not You
You are mine forever
Who I have in Heaven but you
Nothing I desire but You
My heart may fail but not You
You are mine forever
My God's enough for me
This world has nothing I need
In this whole life I've seen
My God's enough
My God's enough for me
This world has nothing I need
In this whole life I've seen
My God's enough, enough for me
