

End of the Road

The Animal In Me

You're gonna reap what your sow welcome to the end of the road you cheated your way to the end of the rope now it's over so tell me there's no hope if you won't change your plans we'll destroy your goals
who's with me
i'm sone leading the blind they keep pushing back till we all fall behind and surrender
it's just a matter of time if we don't move forward then they will rewindI'd like to think that everything will
come back to hunt you
we're wrapped around your fingers and it's time to cut the wire i'd like to think
before you take your bow we're gonna take our stand tonight and it's the end of the roadWhat made you think you had the right
to choose our fate
when you know
these streets turn to graves
and you see but
still look away
and you can't play god
when you bleed like us
if we hit a vein
but we won't bleed forever
and we won't bleed for you
will take what you wanted
and leave us nothing
you think you're better than us

but you're just a human being you will take what you wanted
but you're just a human being I'd like to think
come back to hunt you (x3)
my heart is sick
but it won't kill the fight you put us through What made you think
enjoy your fame and fortune while it lasts
before you take us out we're gonna break
you down tonight We walk alone (x3) you're gonna reap what you sow (x2) what made you think
cause we won't bleed for you
