

Sacrifice Of The Unborn

Krisiun

Eternal blackest night
spreadin' the seeds of doom
the downfall of heaven
drowning into the abyss
infestation of damnation
among the fear of decay storms of degradation blasting the world of GodHymn of the damned echoing throughtout the devastation emebbed on sick blood ripped miserable beings praying to nothing awaiting in vain deadly plague inside mankind the holocaust has been concieved victims of God's will witness of their own deathUnconscious slaughtered and lost final march of a last race guided by instinct searching for the light that never comes no rest for the cursed ones absolute horror of forgotten sacrifice of the unbornEternal blackest night
blasting the world of God
