

Giving That Heaven Away

Jackson Browne

Pretty Nova, one year over
Legal age of consent
In the flower of sweet youth
Our days of heaven were spent Giving that heaven away
Giving that heaven away
Rock 'n' roll, and freeing your soul, and Giving that heaven away I'm looking 'round for that sixties' sound
Those days are gone and all us acid dropping
World stopping, be bopping
Freaks are just hanging on Little Nova, did you have to show the Whole world how to rebel?
Standing there with your long brown hair
Like a cool breeze blowing through hell Giving that heaven away
Giving that heaven away
Back in those days, we all were so crazy
Giving that heaven away Giving that heaven away
Giving that heaven away
Ooh, ooh, giving that heaven away Seems like the whole world's at a fire sale
But I might be wrong, with all those home shopping
Bling, bling and hip hopping
Maybe it's just going strong But, hey, now Nova, we both know
The ones who're always making it pay
Well, any fool can sell a jewel
But an angel will give it away Giving that heaven away
Giving that heaven away
Ooh, ooh, I'm going, go down singing
And giving that heaven away Where did the day go in that Winnebago?
The two of us, hot as a stove
Fools for pleasure, digging for treasure
Down in that Black Oak grove Giving that heaven away
Giving that heaven away
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, giving that heaven away
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, giving that heaven away
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, giving that heaven away
Ooh, ooh, ooh Giving that heaven away
Giving that heaven away
Ooh, ooh, giving that heaven away
Giving that heaven away
