

Ain't Nobody Like My Baby

B.B. King

I'm in love with a real fine woman
And she gives me everything
I said I'm in love with a real fine woman
And she gives me everything
And it makes me feel so good
Just to hear my baby call my name My baby's sly way of loving
Make me feel so good that I could sing
Hey, my baby's sly way of loving
Makes me feel so good, I could sing
I feel just like I'm a millionaire
When I hear my baby call my name Oh, there ain't nobody like my baby
That's the reason I love her so
Oh, it ain't nobody, nobody like my baby
That's the reason I love her so
People, I would even die for her
I want the whole round world, world to know When I'm down, she picks me up
She says, "Daddy, you can't lose"
Oh, when I'm down, when I'm down
She picks me up, tells me, "Baby, you can't lose"
When all of my friends forget about me
My baby keeps away all these blues
