

The Dungeon

Starflyer 59

You're on the outside
He's in the way
You're on the outside
My wayMy heart is bleeding
For the one you hate
But you're always in my wayIn my way
In my way
In my wayTake your blue news
Take your taste
Take all the good things
That you wasteYou know I'm coming
To take the blame
And it's always the sameAnd they're same
And they're same
And they're same
