

Kill, Kill, Kill.

Blood Duster

An all-American boy
Voted likely to succeed
Started hearing voices
So he made people bleed He had to kill 13
Stopping earthquakes
Was his dream
by 1972
Herb became a normal dude
But he kept hearing voices
He was in a violent mood
He had to kill 13
Stopping earthquakes was his dream Voices told Herb 13 must be killed
He did his best
That the orders were fulfilled
Splattered with their blood
More fun in Santa Cruz.
