

Mission 2000 (Mission Impossible II Soundtrack)

Chris Cornell

Chris Cornell---Mission 0

Pulled through you and drowning in your swirl

Circling unfolding in your will

I'm going to glide on the winds of your breathing And alight on your guarded heart

I'm gonna tear all our temples down

I'm on a mission now

Smoldering down inside your mood Slithering and fanning in your eyes

I'm going to dive through your crying and sleep in your hair

Rise from your ashes and kneel in your prayers

Tear all your temples down I'm on a mission now

And I have nothing, but then the have is not as good as the want

I'm gonna glide on the winds of your breathing

Writhe in your calm and provide your release Weave into your wanting and needing

And reside in the heart of your strongest beliefs

I'm gonna tear all our temples down

I'm on a mission now And I have nothing, but then the have is not as good as the want.
