Dont Ever Leave Me Again

Patsy Cline

Wake up every morning, heart's full of pain
Looked out the window and it's pouring down the rain
And I cry, "Baby, oh, baby
Don't ever leave me again"I miss your lovin', your kisses too
Ain't nothin' on earth, I wouldn't do for you
And I cry, "Baby, oh, baby
Don't ever leave me again"When rain starts falling
And I start calling
Oh baby, how I love you
My heart is cryin', I feel like dyin'Baby you know, I want you so
Tell me that you're mine till the end of timeAnd I cry, "Baby, oh, baby
Don't ever leave me again
Don't ever leave me again"When rain starts falling
And I start calling
Oh baby, how I love you
My heart is cryin', I feel like dyin'Baby ya know, I want you so
Tell me that you're mine till the end of timeAnd I cry, "Baby, oh, baby
Don't ever leave me again, no
Don't ever leave me again"
