

Tragedy In a Minor

Skinny Lister

We had it all, what did I know?
If that was love, where did it go?
My friends give advice, I should be playing it cool
Did all of those years mean nothing to you? The day she left me, she never looked so lovely
And as she walked away, the thunder gathered above me Cancel the wedding, Mariachi band too
Don't need no disco DJ, just bring me the blues
Just give me some time, I'll be back on my feet
Until then, I've got that day on repeat
The day she left me, she never looked so lovely
And as she walked away, the thunder gathered above me The day she left me, I swear she never looked finer
The day she left me, a tragedy in A Minor The day she left me, I've got on repeat
Well who to invite, it was doin' my head in
It's kind of a blessing she cancelled the wedding
Some day I will laugh at this, I do not doubt it
I might even write me a song all about it I swear she never looked finer
The day she left me, a tragedy in A Minor
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>