Real Smart

Lou Doillon

I'm always real smart
At fucking things up
And saying what one, should never say,
If you plan on him to stayNo I don't need you to tell me,
For I know I'm the one to blame,
It's funny how, as soon as I hold you,
I can't help but to throw you away,But don't don't don't hold it against me,
No don't don't don't hold it against me,
For I hold the two ends of my own tragedyI'm always real fast,
At giving you up,
You call me tough and I agree,
But you knew this when you came looking for meNo I don't need you to tell me
For I know I'm the one to blame,
It's funny how, as soon as I hold you,
I can't help but to push you awayBut don't don't don't hold it against me
No don't don't don't hold it against me,
For I hold the two ends of my own tragedyNo I don't need you to tell me,
For I know I'm the one to blame,
It's funny how as soon as I hold you
I can't help but to throw you away,But don't don't don't hold it against me
No don't don't don't hold it against me,
For I hold the two hands of my own tragedy.
