Love Remains

Red Wanting Blue

The cards are stacked against us, dear
And there's no going back
Our love remains still in tact
But not on track
Oh wellDon't give up
You can keep up, keep on moving
Chasing the sound of the sun somewhere going down
I have a love, but the road royally did anoint
I leave my queen to be king of the vanishing point
I go further out, deeper down into the hole
Keep losing pieces in an effort to make things whole
My love remains
My light house out of sight
I'm in the dark nowYou keep tabs on the good times and the bad
Filing the losses and the gains
I need your hands
Measure the weight of love's demands
Balance the hope against the pain for meDon't give up
You can keep up, keep on moving
Chasing the sound of the sun somewhere going down
I have a love, but the road royally did anoint
I leave my queen to be king of the vanishing point
I go further out, deeper down into the hole
Keep losing pieces in an effort to make things whole
My love remains
My light house out of sight
I'm in the dark now
But I'm holding on for lifeDon't give up
Holding on for life
My love remains
Our love remains
Our love remainsDon't give up
You can keep up, keep on moving
Chasing the sound of the sun somewhere going down
I have a love, but the road royally did anoint
I leave my queen to be king of the vanishing point
I go further out, deeper down into the hole
Keep losing pieces in an effort to make things whole
My love remains

My light house out of sight
I'm in the dark
But I'm holding on for lifeDon't give up
You can keep up, keep on moving
Chasing the sound of the sun somewhere going down
I have a love, but the road royally did anoint
I leave my queen to be king of the vanishing point
I go further out, deeper down into the hole
Keep losing pieces in an effort to make things whole
My love remains
My light house out of sight
I'm in the dark
But I'm holding on for lifeDon't give up
Don't give up
Don't give up
Don't give up
Don't give up
You can keep up, keep on moving
Don't give up
You can keep up, keep on moving
