

English Rose

Ed Sheeran

Across the sea by the Tennessee skyline they told me I'd find my hopes and my dreams I long to be in the bed of my true love back where I came from she's waiting for me So I make my way through long winding country roads but my heart still beats for my home and my English rose I told my dad on the phone it's amazing from the straight to the crazy the places I've been I long to be in the arms of my true love like he loves my mother he understands me and I spend my days just traveling and playing shows and my heart still beats for my home and my English rose Oooooo-oooooooo-oooooh Oooooo-aaaaaaa-aaaaah Oo-aaaaa-aaaaaa-aaaaah I met a man in the bar down in Munford and he told me he went there to follow his dreams He told me son you know I left my true love for the same exact reason you crossed the sea And I found truth in people I've never known and my heart still beats for my home and my English rose
and my heart still beats for my home and my English rose
and my heart still beats for my home and my English rose.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>