

Crave

Wilson

Lighting up the night, my eyes are following your walk
With Every move the only truth is darling you're the one I want
And I'm craving you Silver in the Dark, you come apart I come to life
Seconds feel like hours, little flower I am so alive
I'm so alive Because I crave you. I crave you
I got a hunger that won't go away
Now I crave you I crave you
You're the only one that I crave Try to pry the knife, the blade is right up overhead
You cry out for my love, oh how I wish that you could understand
That I'm craving you
Vile, I am the man who held your hand thru it all
Now I breathe you in, until the end I'll never let you go let you go Because I crave you. I crave you
I got a hunger that won't go away
Now I crave you. I crave you
I got a hunger that won't go away
I'm alive in you. Alive in you
You're the only one that can save this soul
Im alive in you. Alive in you.
You're the only one. The only one that I crave I tried to settle down babe.
tried to push it all away
But I crave.
Yea I Crave
I crave you. I crave you
I got a hunger that won't go away
Now I crave you. I crave you
I got a hunger that won't go away
I'm alive in you. Alive in you
You're the only one that can save this soul
Im alive in you. Alive in you.
You're the only one. The only one that I crave
I know you're out for blood, go ahead get stuck in my veins.
I know you're out for blood, c'mon get stuck in my veins.
My Veins (my veins), My veins (my veins) My Veins.
My Veins (my veins), My veins (my veins) My veins.
Whoa....sucker.
