A Million Miles Away

The Plimsouls

Friday night, I'd just got back
I had my eyes shut and dreaming about the past
I thought about you while the radio played
I should have got moving, some reason I stayedI started drifting to a different place
I realized I was falling off the face of your world
And there was nothing left to bring me backI'm a million miles away
A million miles away
I'm just a million miles away
And there's nothing left to bring me back todayTook a ride, I went downtown
The streets were empty, there was no one around
All the faces that we used to know,
Gone from the places that we used to go.I'm at the wrong end of your looking glass
Just trying to hold on to the hands of the past and you
And there was nothing left to bring me backI was a million miles away
A million miles away
I'm just a million miles away
And there's nothing to bring me back today
Bring me back today, bring me back todayI started drifting to a different place
I realized, falling off the face of the world
And there was nothing left to bring me backI was a million miles away
I'm a million miles away
I'm a million miles away
And there's nothing left to bring me back today
Bring me back today, bring me back today
Bring me back today
