The Seventh Seal

Aphrodite's Child

Oh yeah
Walk me down to the wishin' well
Help me find that miracle
Splash that holy water on me
Drown my faith in Trinity, yeah
Oh, Lord
Little by little gonna get it I swear
One more piece of the puzzle, I'm there, yeah
Gotta get lucky, gotta get that done
Little bit of luck never hurt no one
Come on take me down, down, down, down
I'm in a cold sweat
Lord, don't let me drown, drown, drown, drown
In Mother Earth's soul yet
Oh yeah, yeah
Under darken skies
We'll see the light
Yeah

Broken now, I can't help but feel
Someone cracked the seventh seal
Nothin' sacred, nothin' left unturned
When nothin's simple, then nothin's learned
So take me down to the virgin spring
Wash away my suffering, oh
Splash that holy water on me
Wash my eyes so I can see
Come on take me down, down, down, down
I'm in a cold sweat
Yeah, don't let me drown, drown, drown, drown
In Mother Earth's soul, not yet
Lord, I think I found, found, found, found, found
My mother, Lord
Oh yeah
Lord, Lord, Lord, Lord, Lord, Lord
Yeah down, down, down, down, down, down
Take me down, down, down, down, down, down
Take me
