Healing In Your Arms

Luminate

If it's been one time, it's been a million
Try to be perfect but it's tearing me apart
The fear of failing is so familiar
But you're breaking down the fences in my heartI'll slow down breathing in, breathing out, oh
I'm waking up, I'm breaking out, I'm leaving
Behind the fear and doubt, I'm letting go,
I'll trust and fall, 'cause I know there's healing in your armsSo I've been striving, running in circles
Through the fight I've forgotten who I am
God, I am longing to break the cycle
To lose myself so I can start againI'll slow down breathing in, breathing out, oh
I'm waking up, I'm breaking out, I'm leaving
Behind the fear and doubt, I'm letting go,
I'll trust and fall, 'cause I know there's healing in your armsIt's time to give it away, gotta give it away
Let your love take over
And love is why you came, you gave it all away
Now love is taking me overI'm waking up, I'm breaking out
I'm leaving behind the fear and doubt
I'm letting go, I'll trust and fall
'Cause I know there's healing in your armsI'm waking up, I'm breaking out
I'm leaving behind the fear and doubt
I'm letting go, I'll trust and fall
'Cause I know there's healing in your armsOh yes, I know there's healing in your arms
There's healing, healing in your arms
