You Won't See Me Crying

Passage

Waited by the phone all day
Thinkin' that you'd call
But you never did, oh no
You are different from before
Now you made me insecure
Like you never did, oh noTell me it's not over now, will you?
So I won't be hangin' around
And you won't see me cryingOoh, oohOh, girl, you've got it wrong
You've been thinking all along
But I've really changed, oh babe
My love's been knockin' at your door
Do you hear it?
Do you really, really care?Tell me it's not over now, will you?
So I won't be hangin' around
And you won't see me cryingOoh, oohTake me into your sweet loving arms
Let's make love like we've never done before
Like we've never done beforeTell me it's not over now, will you?
So I won't be hangin' around
And you wont see me crying..Tell me it's not over now, will you?
say you love me say it loudSay you love me say it loudAnd you wont see me cryingYou wont see me crying
