

Speaking Voice

Coin

Stumble on my words
A feeling I'd forgotten
Sleep until it hurts

And tell me if you're honest I know you don't have a reason to

 Speak up, and that's alright

 I'd share my coat if you're freezing

But, if not, at least I tried Gardens in the snow

 An overgrown disaster

 Learn the saxophone

I'm scared you're moving backwards

 I know you don't have a reason to

 Speak up, and that's alright

 I'd share my coat if you're freezing

But, if not, at least I tried I know you hear me, I'm speaking

Can you hear me now? I know you hear me, I'm screaming

 Can you hear me now?

 It rests up on my chest

 I did my very best

 Didn't I?

Do alright I know you don't have a reason to

 Speak up, and that's alright

 I'd share my coat if you're freezing

 But, if not, at least I tried

 I know you hear, I'm speaking

 Can you hear me now?

 I know you hear me, I'm screaming

 Can you hear me now?
