

Ballad Of Wendy Baker

Ben Kweller

I'm so quiet today I don't feel like me
Some one took your smile away
Now it's gone and I can see
No one loves till it's gone I'm the one who likes change
But I feel taken by surprise
Let me rewind the things I say
That made it rain inside your eyes I keep missing you
My heart knows it's through Don't wake up, I'm here
To keep you from the storm, ooh
I'll soak up your fear
And keep your body warm I keep missing you
My heart knows it's through Don't wake up, I'm here
To keep you from the storm, ooh
I'll soak up your fear
And keep your body warm I keep missing you
My heart knows it's through
Nothing to hold on to, ooh
My heart knows it's through
