Dry Kill Logic

Pain-is deserved/forgotten to/ Say- to acknowledge/Away-for the last time/ And there
For there's one thing you've That you've taken what's been given/will be NO forgiveness/ Today-nor around you within these walls ever/ As the walls close in Chorus: I spend/ All my life/searching for something/ And it starts to seem like it's a lie/ The more you run, the less your chances/ Are youscared to quit? Scared to die?
Because it's all my life (chorus)NO/ Shame- you're feeling/what/ Remains- forever/ Soon you start to lose your sense of/ Control- As its fading/
As the choices made reveal Away0 like old time/
As you sense that it is slipping/within these walls
Now it all comes back to haunt you/Chorus (leave out last part (scared to die)Now I'm afraid to be ALONE/
Scared to be ALONE/
You want and need to be ALONE/
Now as you strive to be ALONE/
But that goes away/
Within these walls I spend Within these walls I spend/Chorus x2
