

Greed Of Man

Grand Funk Railroad

Tell me how you're doing in your eyes now?
Well, tell me what you see, tell me why now?
Do you see what's happening in your home land?
Do you feel, do you hear, do you know, man?

Well, I don't understand, there's no rhyme or reason
I know the greed of man has no season
He never stops to think about the outcome
He don't look back to see the damage he's done
And if it's gonna be that you don't realize
He's got you hypnotized, must be mesmerized
He's cut you down to size, yeah

Well, tell me that you're livin' for the future
Tell me you're gonna do whatever suits you

Well, I don't understand, there's no rhyme or reason
I know the greed of man has no season
He never stops to think about the outcome
He don't look back to see the damage he's done
And if it's gonna be that you don't realize
He's got you hypnotized, must be mesmerized
He's cut you down to size, hey yeah

Well, I don't understand, there's no rhyme or reason
I know the greed of man has no season
He never stops to think about the outcome
He don't look back to see the damage he's done
And if it's gonna be that you don't realize
He's got you hypnotized, you must be mesmerized
He's cut you down to size, hey

You must be hypnotized, he's got you mesmerized
He's cut you down to size
You must be hypnotized, you must be mesmerized
You must be, you must be, you must be hypnotized

You must be
You must be
You must be
