

Just To See You Smile

Why Don't We

you have my focus
i can't control it i find your magic
in every moment
no sleight of hand
cause you're my truth and when I'm in love the ordinary just won't do you look so beautiful
you walked out of a dream
i never felt this way before your eyes are all i need to make forever feel like just a little while i swear I'd walk, I'd run I'd even learn to fly
you can make the world stop
you can have it your way
you can make the world stop
without a question
you keep me guessing and golden hearts find gentle hands with no exception and if i hold ya
we're bulletproof
and i dont care about nobody's point of view

and when you pull me close i learn which side of gravity needs me most attracted to your everything i know there's more than what meets the eye I'd walk, I'd run
