

Sufi Dub

La Cherga

Longing, desire.. where do they come from?
the beat like the drum so loud loud loud loud must not show it
keep it all down
feel your palms as they burn feel no ground everything turns look around you're walking on clouds there's nothing else
but love that surrounds one loses awareness of time thoughts become the endless love rhyme those who dwell against the violent stream don't regret they carry love within zašto moje srce glasno bije?

šta to moja duša sada krije?

close to the fear you confront soon as you get near it starts to run more than ever than you start to feel the secret you've been trying to reveal that war yet no one has won game where all the warriors become it's the story never to be done neverending, by itself begun
look around you're walking on clouds
there's nothing else

zašto moje srce glasno bije?
