

Don't Hold Your Breath Boy

Teen Hearts

She's gone and now you're wanting her back
Although you knew it from the start
That the feelings wouldn't last
I don't owe you anything is what she said
It's what she said to me So take a deep breath and let the breath out fast
I hope this is what you wanted
I can't focus on anything
Cause I know this isn't what I needed [Chorus]
You said, that I should give up
But I can't give up
Cause I don't want to let you go Everything happens for a reason right? right!
That's why I can't let these girls girls effect me
The way she looked at me tonight tonight!
I still can't believe that this is what you wanted So take a deep breath and let the breath out fast
I hope this is what you wanted
I can't focus on anything
Cause I know this isn't what I needed [Chorus x2]
You said, that I should give up
But I can't give up
Cause I don't want to let you go Don't hold your breath boy
Cause you know you'll regret
It more than you ever have
Don't hold your breath boy
Cause you know you'll regret
It more than you ever have This is your last chance
This is what you wanted
This is the last call
In the end it's what I needed [Chorus x2]
You said, that I should give up
But I can't give up
Cause I don't want to let you go
