

Can't Take It

Brian McKnight

Can't Take It

Brian McKnight hmmm...hmmm...body's weak, heart is pounding what i've been lookin for baby i found it ex-marks the spot sure i keep diggin coz i know it's just a matter of time it's getting hot you're body's burnin

as the world keeps turnin and turnin you're the lamb i'm the lion coz i know that you were made to be mine i feel chills coming down and i feel i'm stuck down in my toes i give you all that i've got till it feels like im about to explode, explode coz i cant take it no i cant take it no i cant take it no more no i cant take it no i cant take it no i cant take it no more here's a myth, bodies glistening to your heartbeat baby im listenin we are one with the rhythm of the passion that were feelin inside this lover reminds of the time that were so beautiful, wild and free and we play in the moonlight under the starlight stay here forever with me i feel chills coming down and i feel i'm stuck down in my toes i give you all that i've got till it feels like im about to explode coz/no i cant take it no i cant take it no i cant take it no more no i cant take it no i cant take it no i cant take it no more (repeat) feel you close next to me take you to ecstasy time that brings deep inside your soul...i cant take it no i cant take it no i cant take it no more no i cant take it no i cant take it no i cant take it no more (repeat) ah.....
