

Death March (feat. Zakk Wylde)

Black Label Society

Where have we gone? What have we done?
Where have we gone? Nowhere left to run
Pray for war, pray for death, pray for hate
Pray for all that you know
All these years ain't nothing's changed
And you know and you know, yeah
Spiral of darkness, as the fools await
Peaceful destruction has sealed my fate
Pray for war, pray for death, pray for hate
Pray for all that you know
All these years ain't nothing's changed
And you know and you know, yeah
Pray for war, pray for death, pray for hate
Pray for all that you know
All these years ain't nothing's changed
And you know and you know, yeah
