

Gaia

Naraka

In the light there is always shadow
In the dark there is memory of light
Passion dies as the Old One awakens
Lesson learnt when the children cry
Gaia...

Our mother calls us to her womb
The Kraken reaps the oceans wide
Payment has come in the throes of panic
Harvest souls of day and night
Gaia... Gaia... Foes of hers undermining
Friendly wars are always bought
Free the grip of societal stigma
What is right is what you thought
Gaia...

Grave decision laid her to rest
You'll do it your own way
Paid ministers of your god's coven
Never ever hear what you say
Gaia... Gaia...
Gaia... Gaia...
