

Blank Stares

Jay Allen

Okâ€”I just was wondering what you were doing. and I wanna. um.I wanted
To say happy. um.--There's a voicemail that I keep I listen to it, just to hear you speak
"Hey Son." turns to silence just like that
You know I love you walking by Like you saw the phone in your hand and you didn't know why
It's crazy how you come and go so fast
Oh how do I get you back
If I could only seal the cracks you're slipping through Wish I didn't feel so helpless when it comes to helping you
Hold on
So I keep holding on
To every little memory made of you and me
Every little glimpse of who you used to be
I know you're still in there
Deep down somewhere I swear I still see you
Between the blank staresIt's the first thing that I think about
When I wake up and when I lay down
It's the last thing I feel crawling through my mind
I'm still trying to understand it
Sitting next to you holding your hand
And hoping you won't fade away this time
Just stay a little while Please stay a little while
If I can only seal the cracks you're slipping through Wish I didn't feel so helpless when it comes to helping you
Hold on
So I keep holding on
To every little memory made of you and me
Every little glimpse of who you used to be
I know you're still in there
Deep down somewhere I swear I still see you
Between the blank staresIt's getting harder and harder
To watch you disappear
Oh if only farther leaving me in tearsWish I didn't feel so helpless when it comes to helping you
Hold on
So I keep holding on
Every little memory made of you and me

Every little glimpse of who you used to be
I know you're still in there
Deep down somewhere I swear I still see you
I still see you
Between the blank stares
Between the blank stares
