

Who Do You Think You Are

Cascada

Why can I still believe in tomorrow
When all I have tried was just in vain
Is it worth the fight? I couldn't start believing
That those feelings who died could face the pain I don't need no diamond rings, alibis no more Who do you think you are?
'Cos once again you broke my heart
And I know that love went just too far
It's hard to catch a falling star But now I finally realize
You're a brown-eyed angel in disguise
Just one step too far, so tell me, honestly
Who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are? You and I, we're on our way together
But this life passed by, these days are gone
All the tears I've cried, they taught me nothing lasts forever
I've been blind for just too long 'Cos I don't need no diamond rings, alibis no more Who do you think you are?
'Cos once again you broke my heart
And I know that love went just too far
It's hard to catch a falling star But now I finally realize
You're a brown-eyed angel in disguise
Just one step too far, so tell me, honestly
Who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
