

One Year From Now

Katatonia

One year from now, will I be strong?
Will I stand up for what I've become?
Everything I have, I will give you
And everything I own, I owe you One year from now, dare I call you mine
A year ahead from now, it's a different time
Everything I have, I will give you
And everything I own, I owe you Everything I have, I will give you
And everything I own, I owe you
Everything I have, I will give you
And everything I own, I owe you Everything I have, I will give you
Everything I own, I owe to you
Everything I have, I will give you
Everything I own, I owe to you
