

Midnight Nation

Bobaflex

And on that day, your mama would cry
And on that day your father would die
And on that day when you lost your mind
This is what it sounds like Oh, no, no, it's not real
Oh, no, no, it's not real
What's that sound? It's not real
Oh, no, no I know you've been alone
I can see your bad dreams in the seams of your pillow
Friendly faces change to strangers
Familiar places seem like mazes There's something on the phone
It wants to talk and it knows your home
You can't stop from floating backwards
What's this force that distorts my world Let me out, let me out, let me out, let me out
Let me out, let me out, let me out, where am I? Midnight nation, hallucination
No escape from Midnight Nation Now, you see deformed faces in crowds
Stitched closed eyes and chins with no mouths
World in between, what is and should not be
Peers speak to people that you cannot see You read the Bible but the content had changed
It's a map that leaves hell, the doorway is pain
I'm in your mind, cackling and laughing
I whisper dark thoughts in the brains of madmen Let me out, let me out, let me out, let me out
Let me out, let me out, let me out, where am I? Midnight nation, hallucination
No escape from Midnight Nation Oh, no, no, it's not real
Oh, no, no, it's not real
What's that sound? It's not real
Oh, no, no, no, no, no, it's not real On that day, your mama would cry
And on that day your father would die
On that day when you lost your mind
This is what it sounds like Let me out, let me out, let me out, let me out
Let me out, let me out, let me out, let me out
Let me out, let me out, let me out, let me out
Let me out, let me out, let me out, let me out Raw from a loss, now the world has changed
Am I insane or dead?
Raw from a loss, now the world has changed
Am I insane or dead? Ho, ho, what ya say?
Ho, ho, what ya say?
Ho, ho, what ya say?
Ho, ho, what ya say? Ho, ho, let me out
Ho, ho, let me out

Ho, ho, let me out
Ho, ho, let me out
Ho
