(I Never Promised You A) Rose Garden

Martina McBride

I beg your pardon
I never promised you a rose garden
Along with the sunshine

There's gotta be a little rain sometimeWhen you take you gotta give so live

And let live and let go oh oh oh oh

I beg your pardon

I never promised you a rose gardenI could promise you things like big diamond rings But you don't find roses growin' on stalks of clover

So you better think it over

Well, if sweet talking you could make it come true I would give you the world right now on a silver platter But what would it matterSo smile for a while

And let's be jolly

Love shouldn't be so melancholy

Come along and share the good times while we can beg your pardon

I never promised you a rose garden

Along with the sunshine

There's gotta be a little rain sometimeI beg your pardon
I never promised you a rose gardenI could sing you a tune and promise you the moon
But if that's what it takes to hold you I'd just as soon let you go

But there's one thing I want you to know You'd better look before you leap still waters run deep And there won't always be someone there to pull you out And you know what I'm talking aboutSo smile for a while

And let's be jolly

Love shouldn't be so melancholy

Come along and share the good times while we can beg your pardon

I never promised you a rose garden

Along with the sunshine

There's gotta be a little rain sometime beg your pardon

I never promised you a rose garden

Along with the sunshine

There's gotta be a little rain sometime
