

Good God

Korn

You came into my life without a single thing
I gave in to your ways, which left me with nothing
I've given in to smiles, I fell for all your games
I wish so bad right now, I hadn't let you win
Won't you get the fuck out of my face? Now
Won't you get the fuck out of my face? Now
In the sea of life, you're just a minnow, live your life insecure
Feel the pain of your needles as they shit into my brain
I scream without a sound, how could you take away
Everything that I was made me a fuckin' slave
Your face that I despise, your heart inside that's gray
I came today to say you're fucked in every way
Won't you get the fuck out of my face? Now
Won't you get the fuck out of my face? Now
In the sea of life, you're just a minnow, live your life insecure
I feel the pain of your needles as they shit into my mind
You stole my life, without a sigh, you suck me
dry
Won't you get the fuck out of my face? Now
Won't you get the fuck out of my face? Now
Won't you get the fuck out of my face? Now
Won't you get the fuck out of my face? Now
Won't you get the fuck out of my face? Now
Won't you get the fuck out of my face? Now
In the sea of life, you're just a minnow, live your life insecure
Feel the pain of your needle as they shit into my mind
You stole my life, without a sigh, you suck me dry
