

Straight to the Face

From First to Last

Hello again,
The world is at your stage,
So drop the curtain, kill the lights and go
So fucking bored,
You're all a whisper in a sea of bloody sweat and gold,
Goodbye forever, I'll see you never,
You wannabe, fake, piece of shit motherfuckers,
You said I saved your life, but I wish you'd save mine,
I won't be the one that's left behind. You are all full of shit,
I'm just looking for a hint of reality,
You are all full of shit,
I'm just looking for a dose of originality. Hello again,
The world is at your stage,
So drop the curtain, kill the lights and go,
So fucking bored,
You're all a whisper in a sea of bloody sweat and gold,
I won't be your fucking puppet,
I will kill you all and love it.
