

The Beauty of Falling Down

Alpha Rev

It's getting better
So hard to tell
What is the right next thing
What is the right next thing
It's getting worse
Easy as hell
What is the right next thing
What is the right next thing Couldn't tell you
I would have to kill you
Couldn't tell you anyway
I would have to kill you And you got me on my knees
Right now
And you got me on my knees
Again I missed my luck
I couldn't have missed
Too many chances up and down
The rain is gone but I am
Drowning
I missed my luck
I shouldn't have missed
I missed the right next thing
I missed the right next thing Could have told me
You would have to kill me
Could have told me anyway
I would never listen to you You got me on my knees
Right now
You got me on my knees again I could have told you
What really happened
Not that it matters
Now you've forgotten
And if I get up from
This place of confusion
I wanna run straight into
Your undying love
Yeah you got me on my knees You got me on my knees
Right now
