Neon

The Kovenant

Bastard proclamations of a dying nation
Social deconstruction through deceit and deception
Hit us with your pointing stick, golden arches crucifix
We will never be like youSubliminal derangement of the human senses
Corporate illusions of holy intervention
Vulture culture history, television ministry
We will never be like youLet me be your neon god
We've got brand new illusions for your plastic souls
We're all wired up and ready to go
Because gravity means nothing, nowA man made messiah of concrete and steel
Instant salvation through your TV screen
Let me be your godSubdue your maker, subdue your maker
I am the giver and I am the taker
Subdue your maker, subdue your maker
All succumb to meLet me be your neon god
We've got brand new illusions for your plastic souls
We're all wired up and ready to go
Because gravity means nothing, nowA man made messiah of concrete and steel
Instant salvation through your TV screen
Let me be your god
