

My Swagger Has a First Name

Destroy Rebuild Until God Shows (D.R.U.G.S.)

Failure, give up don't try at all anymore, anymore

 Your weakness, but if you like to fight

 This is the last time, this is the last time

 Dried up and away with discerning mental love affairs

 I'd rather stick with any number of these played out fairy tales

 And moments of your

 (Yellow shining)

 Spending your time in a hiding

 Making out the reasons why the (Life you're seein')

 The public eye with everything you try

 Well, it's never good enough

 Oh, these friends die easy

 Oh, just disappear

 Oh well, my best friend

 I knew these lives would end up here

 Oh, these friends die easy

 Oh, just disappear

 Oh well, my best friend

 I knew these lives would end up here

 Your weakness, but if you like to fight

 This is the last time, this is your last time

 If I could tell you any and everything

 Don't ask, just tell like I should

 Like I know you never could

 And moments come out of hiding

 (Spitting weakness to colors)

 Shining the dark you see

 The reason why you fail at everything you try

 With everything you are

 Well, it's never good enough

 Oh, these friends die easy

 Oh, just disappear

 Oh well, my best friend

 I knew these lives would end up here

 Oh, these friends die easy

 Oh, just disappear

 Oh well, my best friend

 I knew these lives would end up here

I knew these lives would end up here
So then
And I won't even say goodbye
And I won't even say goodbye
So then
And I won't even say goodbye
And I won't even say goodbye
Oh, these friends die easy
Oh, just disappear
Oh well, my best friend
I knew these lives would end up here
Oh, these friends die easy
Oh, just disappear
Oh well, my best friend
I knew these lives would end up here
I knew these lives would end up here
