

Portrait of Henry

Grip Inc.

Carnage, at the flick of the wrist
Oh! Mortal Spirit, disdain never discriminates
    To dismember is natural
    To annihilate is habitual
    Every step taken
    Ushers in dreadHunger forever calling
        Deeper in to ugliness
        Serene in debauchery
    Man's caricature is his fateMonster within
        Turns inside out
        Only to face
        Face itself
        Face itself
        Face itself
        Face itself
    Face itselfPrimitive barbarian, reprobate, born savage
